
Article

Jenna Poindexter · Nov 9, 2015 1m read

Simple USPS Address Normalization Example

The attached code package provides a simple implementation of a web service client that utilizes the USPS Shipping API to normalize an address.

This code requires the developer to obtain a USPS Shipping API user ID which can be obtained from the USPS shipping API website. The assigned User Id can either be passed into the web service call as a parameter or can be coded as a parameter into the Request object.

#Code Snippet #System Administration #Caché

Source URL: <https://community.intersystems.com/post/simple-usps-address-normalization-example>