Win a free Global Summit 2016 registration!

Hello Community!

Win the Developer Community MVP (most valuable participant) award in February, and receive a free registration to the Solution Developers Conference at InterSystems Global Summit 2016!

The Solution Developers Conference is like the live version of the Developer Community. It 's where you can connect with your peers, and with InterSystems developers and product managers face-to-face! You ' ll hear about our newest technologies, and how they can be used to super-charge your development projects. (Learn more about the Solution Developers Conference and InterSystems Global Summit. )

What is the Developer Community MVP award?

The Developer Community MVP award will honor the person who makes the most significant and useful contributions to the Developer Community during the two weeks from 15th to 29th of February, 2016.

How we will determine the most valuable participant?

Your contribution will be measured by:

- The numbers of posts (with a user rating of 3 or better) that you make
- The number of comments made to those posts
- The number of subscriptions to those posts
- The number of votes those posts receive
- The number of comments you make on other people ' s posts

We will count activity in groups: Atelier, Cloud, Caché, DeepSee, Ensemble, Field Test 2016.2, iKnow, InterSystems Global Summit, Java, Learning Services, SQL, Supported platforms, Web Development and will count only helpful comments (we will filter "+1", "bump" etc). The decision of the judges is final.

Can we see the leader board?

Yes. The leader board will be visible soon.

What are the dates?

The contest begins February 15, 2016 at 00:01AM EST and ends February 29, 2016 at 11:59PM EST

If I am named the Developer Community MVP for February, what do I win?

Bragging rights! Also, the MVP will receive a single use discount code to offset the cost of a Global Summit 2016 registration. It is valid for InterSystems Global Summit 2016 registration fee only. And MVP will be prized with coverage of 4 nights stay in InterSystems Global Summit Hotel - Arizona Baltimore, Waldorf Astoria Resort! The MVP is responsible for any additional fees or expenses, including taxes, travel, guests, etc.

If the MVP has already registered for the Global Summit, InterSystems will issue a refund for the registration
