
Job

jyothi Prakash M · Jul 2, 2019

Looking for Interface Developer

- HI ALL,
- Greetings from Sutherland Healthcare !!!

ROLE SUMMARY

Looking for Interface Developer with Exp in Ensemble, MUMPS & CACHE, you will be responsible to design, develop and implement Application Integration solutions to the enterprise-wide requirements of customers. These solutions deal with major business processes or systems utilized to manage the overall enterprise. This requires system integration coordination and administration of integrated systems, modules and applications.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Implements technical solutions and management processes to achieve overall objectives by means of implementing systems or enterprise-wide solutions.

Integrates solutions and strategies within the customer environment, based on the analysis of customer business goals, objectives, needs, and existing systems infrastructure.

Involve in several cross-functional areas to help make the business unit successful including sales support, client services, process definition, recruitment, and strategy.

Understand the system software and its capabilities; understand the needs of the entity departments utilizing the system/understand what information is critical to passing through the HL7 interface

Provide technical messaging expertise to projects and systems that utilize interfaced communication protocols such as Ensemble, MUMPS & CACHE. Along with a strong focus on messaging standards like HL7 v2.x, v3, CDA (Clinical Document Architecture), and help the client in extracting data elements via HL7 interfaces or any other reporting mechanism.

Work with end-users and project teams to analyze and document data and workflow processes. Good data analysis, communication, troubleshooting, and writing skills are required.

Analyzes develop, tests deploy and supports HL7 interfaces,

Uses strong communication, research, analysis, and technical skills with the ability to guide complex tasks to timely completion.

Ability to multitask, prioritize, solve problems, deal with conflicting priorities, use appropriate technology to analyze business problems, and manage deliverables simultaneously while adapting to change easily in a deadline-driven environment. Task-oriented and committed to task completion within expected timeframes

Analyzes hospital needs regarding the use of integrated systems, equipment, or operations and processes. Analyzes multiple clinical and business processes of the Hospital and provides appropriate information technology solutions.

Proactively communicate and collaborate with customers to analyze information needs and functional requirements.

Required:

B.E./ B.Tech / M.C.A / M.Sc Graduate or any equivalent

Minimum 3 to 8 years of relevant experience.

-

Work Location: Pune

- Prior exposure to working in companies with US clients will be preferable, although not mandatory

Mandatory Skills :

Experience with interface engines like Ensemble, MUMPS & CACHE etc.

Experience in HL7 messaging standards

Note: Please share your profile to jyothiprakash.meruva@sutherlandglobal.com.

Thanks & Regards:

Jyothi Prakash Meruva (Recruitment - HR)

#Job Opportunity #Caché #Ensemble

Source URL: <https://community.intersystems.com/post/looking-interface-developer>