New Video: Leverage Your Users for UI Design

Hi Community!

New video is already on InterSystems Developers YouTube Channel:

Leverage Your Users for UI Design

Too often, software providers build tools and products with an imperfect understanding of the underlying problem. Users may not like the result, even if it's what they asked for. In this non-technical video, we will talk about some easy ways to work with users to be sure that we get to the right problem - so we can solve the problem right.

Takeaway: InterSystems has a UX group, who can help me design better user interfaces.

Presenter: Paul Kouyoumjian

Additional materials to the video you can find in this InterSystems Online Learning Course.
