New Coding Talk: How to Build, Test and Publish ZPM Package with REST Application for InterSystems IRIS

Hi Developers,

Please welcome another "Coding Talk" video specially recorded for the second IRIS Programming Contest:

How to Build, Test and Publish ZPM Package with REST Application for InterSystems IRIS

In this video, @ Evgeny Shvarov shows how to build the Package with ObjectScript classes and REST API application from scratch, how to test it and how to publish it on a test registry and in InterSystems Open Exchange registry.

Download ZMP from Open Exchange

And...

You're very welcome to join the second IRIS Programming Contest! Show your best coding skills on InterSystems IRIS with REST API!

Stay tuned!
