
Question

Julian Matthews · Nov 11, 2020

Email address change has created a new community account

Hey everyone.

It seems that my email address being updated with InterSystems has created a new account on here, and when I attempt to login with the old email address it logs into the new account meaning it looks like I have no post history.

Has anyone else faced this and have any advice on how to resolve it or any thoughts on if this is likely to affect other services like Learning and Global Masters?

#Other

Source

URL: <https://community.intersystems.com/post/email-address-change-has-created-new-community-account>