New Video: ObjectScript Package Manager ZPM: Installing, Building, Testing, Publishing IRIS

Hi Community,

Please welcome the new video on InterSystems Developers YouTube:

ObjectScript Package Manager ZPM: Installing, Building, Testing, Publishing IRIS

Learn about the InterSystems ObjectScript Package Manager (ZPM), a powerful tool that helps improve your development and deployment workflow. An overview and demonstration of the key features of ZPM show how you can modularize your existing codebase, simplify your unit testing process, or drop in some of the many community-driven open source projects that run on InterSystems IRIS data platform.
