Ready, Set, Go! A race to the finish line in your first triathlon on Global Masters!

Hi Developers!

Check out our new Ready, Set, Go fun campaign on Global Masters where you can swim, bike and run your way through eight challenges to collect points and earn bragging rights.

Don't miss the opportunity to tell us a story of why you started programming and read stories of other participants, share with us the hardest part in coding for you and even leave a review for any of the Open Exchange applications and get bonus points.

So, are you ready?
