Leading Through Innovation

18-19 October 2022 – The VOX, NEC, Birmingham

Join us for a true community event, once again bringing together InterSystems customers and partners – to learn, inspire, and share innovation challenges with each other. To register, please complete the form below.

A wide range of prominent speakers will provide a wealth of knowledge and expertise, with the event entirely focused on making sure you have the information required to not only help you within your own role but to positively impact on the growth and success of your organisation.

- Hear the latest product roadmaps from InterSystems specialists
- Network with like-minded peers and be inspired by their levels of innovation
- Get face-to-face once again with peers and InterSystems experts in interactive breakouts, experience labs, and workshops

The full agenda of speakers, topics, and workshops will be announced very soon.
We can't wait to see you all again in October.
