Women's Health - FemTech: Much More than A Niche Market is to be hosted by InterSystems

Hi Community!

We are proud to announce that InterSystems will be hosting the Women's Health - FemTech: Much More than A Niche Market!

Time: July 28, 6:00 PM – 7:00 PM EDT

Location: Online event

This event is organized by HealthTech Build whose mission is to create opportunities for medical providers, biotech digital innovators, health data scientists, digital therapeutics developers, and software engineers to work towards common goals in disruptively productive ways. For this event, the goal will be to exchange ideas and address unmet women's health needs in new ways.

The highlight of the event will be a HealthTech Build panel with:

- Janine Kopp, Investor & Head of Venture Studio, Takeda Digital Ventures
- Uros Kuzmanovic, CEO, Biosens8
- Mary Beth Cicero, CEO, 3Daughters
- Thom Busby, Senior Vice President, Outcome Capital

Don't miss out on this excellent opportunity to discover challenges and discuss new solutions in a great company of like-minded peers!
