[Kick-off Webinar] InterSystems FHIR for Women's Health Contest

Hey Community,

We are glad to invite you to the upcoming kick-off webinar on the FHIR for Women's Health programming contest.

FemTech (software for women ' s health) is an integral part of modern healthcare delivery that individualizes care and encourages patient empowerment. The women ' s digital health market is projected to continue to grow as we prioritize and de-stigmatize women ' s health issues.

In this webinar, we'll show you some of the general principles and problems of solving issues connected to women's health, as well as share some great ideas for your inspiration. As always, we ' ll discuss and answer the questions on how to build solutions using InterSystems IRIS for Health.

Date & Time: Monday, November 14 – 11:00 AM EDT

Speakers:

@Aya Heshmat, Product Specialist

@Dean Andrews, Head of Developer Relations

@Evgeny Shvarov, InterSystems Developer Ecosystem Manager
