Learning options for every style

---

Whether you're looking for immersive, in-person training or self-paced online learning, you'll find lots of opportunities in the March 2023 Learning Newsletter. Tell us about your learning preferences in the survey so we can meet your needs, and subscribe to the newsletter to get the latest updates.

This month, see how to:

- Sign up for an in-person course.
- Beta test a new certification exam for free.
- Extend your reach with resources for external messaging and interoperability.
